Good question.

I have rung 3 times (45 minutes) and each time been told different answers. Fox representative had no clue about Rugby at all, started quoting repeated games from last year. Had to remind her that we can't have teams travelling Internationally at the moment. Last person I spoke to you could hear the chickens in his back yard in the Philippines.

It is no wonder they are losing customers.

Maybe a similarity with Ozzie Rugby, only interested in the $, no pride, no business honour.

How hard is it to have an online Q & A section with a definitive answer.
